

DMCA Policy

1. Copyrights

Vote 2 Wear LLC accepts unsolicited designs from independent artists who have agreed to Vote 2 Wear LLC's policies concerning the intellectual property rights of others.

Vote 2 Wear LLC respects the intellectual property of others, and asks users of the site to do the same. When using and interacting with Vote 2 Wear LLC and the Vote 2 Wear LLC site, you may not post, modify, distribute, or reproduce any user submission without obtaining the copyright holder's prior written consent. It is the user's responsibility to ensure that the submitted design does not violate the copyrights of others. In the event of infringement, Vote 2 Wear LLC responds expeditiously to notices of alleged copyright infringement. Vote 2 Wear LLC reserves the right, in its discretion, to remove any user submission it believes may infringe on the copyright rights of others, and/or to terminate the accounts of users who we believe to be repeat infringers.

2. Take-Down Notification Requirements for Copyright Holders

If you believe that your work has been copied or posted on the Vote 2 Wear LLC site in a manner that infringes on your copyright, you may submit a take-down notification pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") by providing our Copyright Agent with a written communication that substantially includes the following criteria:

1 A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

2 Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.

3 Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material. Providing URLs in the body of an email is the best way to help us locate content quickly.

4 Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.

5 A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

6 A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Such written notice should be sent to our designated agent as follows:

Please also note that under Section 512(f) any person who knowingly materially misrepresents that material or activity is an infringement may be subject to liability.

3. Counter-Notification

If you have received a DMCA/copyright warning from Vote 2 Wear LLC regarding a report of allegedly infringing copyrighted content on your account and believe that your posting of content was a mistake or misidentification or that your use of the content in question constitutes "fair use," you may file a counter notification.

Once an effective counter notification is provided to Vote to Wear LLC, we will forward a copy of it along with all of your provided contact information (this is needed for legal process) to the copyright holder, advising them that Vote to Wear LLC intends to restore or re-enable access to the contested content in ten to fourteen (10-14) business days following the date of the counter notification, unless Vote to Wear LLC receives notice that the copyright holder has filed a lawsuit against you restraining the reposting of the contested material.

To be effective within the meaning of the DMCA, a counter notification shall be in writing and include following (which is excerpted from 17 U.S.C. § 512(g)(3)):

1. Identification of the content that has been removed or to which access has been disabled, including the location at which the content appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled;
2. A statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that the content was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification;
3. Your name, address and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for the judicial district in which the address provided by you is located (or if the address provided by you is outside the United States, you consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for any judicial district in which Yahoo may be found), and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided the notice or an agent of such person; and

4. Your physical or electronic signature on the counter notification.
